Climate-cult leaders have been hard at work trying to turn more of their agenda into policy. This week, they met in New York City for the SDG [Sustainable Development Goals] Summit, and then again for the UN Climate Ambition Summit. A common theme throughout is the "need" for action. The people behind this totalitarian buildup in the name of saving the planet are also targeting the young and the gullible. Investigative reporter and senior editor for The New American William "Bill" F. Jasper has been closely following the week's events and other related matters, and he joins us to give us the scoop.
